

Colloquium

Recent archaeological fieldwork in Sudan

Monday 13 May 2019

Stevenson Lecture Theatre, British Museum

Monday 13 May

11.00 Introduction (Neal Spencer)

Session 1

11.05 'River walls' in Nubia: 3000+ years of engineering the Nile
Mat Dalton

11.25 The Munich University Attab to Ferka Survey Project: Results of the 2018/2019 season
Julia Budka

11.45 Sai Island – Connecting with the past: new excavations at Sai Island
Vincent Francigny

12.05 Break

12.15 The Qatar Sudan Archaeological Project (QSAP), an appreciation
Neal Spencer and Artur Oblutski

12.25 The Qatar Sudan Archaeological Project (QSAP)
Thomas Leisten & Salah Mohamed Ahmed

12.45 QSAP: The Beit Abri lil-Turath (Abri House of Heritage) – community-curation in the Sikoot
Neal Spencer

13.00 QSAP: Manufacturing angareeb beds – an ethnoarchaeological approach
Manuela Lehmann

13.20 Lunch (make own arrangements)

Session 2

14.30 QSAP: Fieldwork at H25 in the Northern Dongola Reach
Stephen Porter

14.45 QSAP: Dangeil 2018-19 – Conservation challenges and an ever-expanding sacred landscape
Julie Anderson

Keynote Lecture

15.05 Kadruka (title tbc)
Pascal Sellier

15.55 Break

16.15 Gold, Nomads, and Petroglyphs: Preliminary results of the 2018 expedition to the Eastern Desert
Julien Cooper

16.35 The first Egypt Exploration Society campaign at Habaraab (HBB017). A preliminary report
Cédric Gobeil

16.55 Circulating Artefacts – Monitoring the trade in Egyptian and Nubian antiquities
Marcel Marée

17.15 The archaeological potential of Durham University's Sudan Archive
Chloé Ward

17.35 Sudan Memory: conserving and promoting Sudanese cultural and documentary heritage
Marilyn Deegan

18.00 Reception in The Raymond and Beverly Sackler Gallery of Sudan, Egypt and Nubia (Room 65)