

The Sudan Archaeological Research Society
W. Y. Adams Colloquium 2023
Sudan: Past and Present

Saturday 13th May Headley Lecture Theatre, the Ashmolean Museum, Oxford

10.30am Introduction

10.40am. Liam McNamara (The Ashmolean Museum)
The Sudan Collection at the Ashmolean Museum

11.10am. Julia Budka (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München)
Towards a better understanding of rural communities in Attab and Ginis: new results from the 2023 DiverseNile season

11.40am. Coffee break

12.00pm. Rebecca Whiting (The British Museum)
An elite Medieval burial from Mis Island in the Fourth Cataract, Sudan

12.30pm. Cornelia Kleinitz (German Archaeological Institute, KAAK + Humboldt Universität zu Berlin), Alfatih Mohamed Ali Saeed (University of Khartoum), Zaroog Bakri Mohamed Ahmed (NCAM) and Hassan Ebeid-Allah (Musawwarat Community Council)
"It's archaeology, but not as we know it": A long-term perspective on collaborating with local (pastoralist) communities at Musawwarat es-Sufra, Sudan

13.00–14.00pm. Lunch (participants to make their own arrangements)

14.00pm. Christopher Sevara (Newcastle University), Ahmed El-Ameen Ahmed El-Hassan (Sokhari) (NCAM), Tim Kinnaird and Sam Turner
New work on landscapes of the Northern Dongola Reach

14.30pm. Zoe Cormack (The British Museum)
The Impact of War and the Survival of Tradition: Documenting Zande Slit-Drums (Gugu) in South Sudan

15.00pm. Comfort break

15.30pm. Rennan Lemos (University of Cambridge)
(Re)producing colonisation on local ground? Explorations of Egyptian-style material culture from New Kingdom sites in Nubia

16.00pm. Emma Phillips (The British Museum)
Who were the people of the 4th Cataract of the Nile? Using dental non-metric traits to investigate population history in the 4th Cataract region and Nubia.

16.30–17.30pm. Comfort break

18.00pm. Keynote Lecture: Pavel Onderka (National Museum Prague)
Recent discoveries at Wad Ben Naga: The Isis Temple

19.00–20.30pm. Drinks reception

Image: Kohl pot from Nubia, image © R. Lemos.

Booking essential

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/w-y-adams-colloquium-sudan-past-and-present-tickets-557721278357>